Chairman Eldrin Bell Takes Center Stage Under the Big Top

Clayton County's Chairman to serve as Guest Ringmaster at UniverSoul Circus

Jonesboro, GA- Clayton County Commissioner, Chairman Eldrin Bell, will be taking on a different sort of leadership role on Thursday, February, 24 when he serves as the Guest Ringmaster for the world renowned UniverSoul Circus. The amazing show takes place in the Green Parking Lot of Turner Field and will begin at 7:30pm as Chairman Bell makes his grand entrance into the big top riding an African Elephant. Tickets are still available through Ticketmaster for Thursday's performance and other shows.

"I am excited and honored to serve as the Guest Ringmaster for the amazing UniverSoul Circus", said Bell. "As a young man growing up in the segregated south I would never had envisioned such a world class production featuring performers that truly reflect the wonderful, universal society that we all exist in today. I can hardly wait to ride in on the elephant and take over for Ringmaster Shuckey Duckey on Thursday evening. I am fulfilling a boyhood dream of mine."

Since 1994 UniverSoul Circus has entertained generations of families. This year's new acts include, the beautiful and enchanting Rahel of Ethiopia, who will twist and turn her way into the hearts of the audience with a cutting edge presentation of contortion referred to as the Pretty Girl Rocks. The circus has traveled all the way to Dalian, China to unearth Modern Biker Girls, a group of amazing young ladies who will put any extreme biker to shame with their amazing two-wheel, non-motorized, dexterity. The Russian Swing act from Belarus will blow circus goers away as two swings flings incredible acrobats high up in the air. The UniverSoul Circus has truly created an experience that is unmatched by any other performance under the big top.
